Sen. Sherrod Brown chairs the Senate Agriculture Subcommittee on Hunger, Nutrition, and Family Farms. He is the first Ohioan in more than 40 years to serve on the U.S. Senate Agriculture Committee.

⇒ According to the U.S. Department of Agriculture, nearly 680,000 Ohio families were food insecure during 2009.

⇒ Food insecurity was more common in large cities than in rural areas and in suburbs and other outlying areas around large cities.

⇒ USDA Research Services recently reported that 14.8 percent of Ohio households are facing a daily risk of hunger, or are food insecure. Ohio is tied at 8th in the nation for states with the highest rates of food insecurity.

⇒ Over the past year, food insecurity in Ohio households rose from 13.3 percent to 14.8 percent; more than 71,000 additional Ohio households are now struggling to keep an adequate amount of food on the table

⇒ According to the Ohio Association of Second Harvest Foodbanks, more than 1.9 million Ohioans visited a food pantry in the past four months.
